GMICJUNE 11, 2015

Mobile is quickly becoming the center of how consumers interact with brands. With mobile usage skyrocketing and surpassing other channels, companies now have powerful new ways to engage with customers and create personalized user experiences.

Retail, brands and agencies are clamoring to harness the huge potential of mobile and are looking for the right tools and solutions to help make it happen. This trend has created an unprecedented opportunity for mobile technology providers to become major players in this booming marketplace.

GMIC NY will connect you to a highly qualified group of mobile decision makers who are actively looking for product like yours!

CUSTOMERS 92% wanted to be treated with dignity. 76% want assurance that their problems will not be repeated. 74% want an explanation. 62% want an apology.
